Bumble Hole Foods – Privacy Notice

We at Bumble Hole Foods are committed to protecting your privacy. This Privacy Notice governs our data collection, its handling and how we use it.

Bumble Hole Foods is the controller and responsible for your personal data.

We may update this notice at any time. It is important that you read this notice, together with any other privacy notice we may provide on specific occasions when we are collecting or processing personal information about you, so that you are aware of how and why we are using such information.

If you have any questions regarding this privacy notice or regarding how we handle the information you provide us, please contact us at bumbleholefoods.com

Your personal data – what is it?

Personal data relates to a living individual who can be identified from that data. Identification can be by the information alone or in conjunction with any other information in the data controller’s possession or likely to come into such possession. The processing of personal data is governed by [the General Data Protection Regulation 2016/679 (the “GDPR”)].

How do we process your personal data?

Bumble Hole Foods complies with its obligations under GDPR by keeping personal data up to date; by storing and destroying it securely; by not collecting or retaining excessive amounts of data; by protecting personal data from loss, misuse, unauthorised access and disclosure and by ensuring that appropriate technical measures are in place to protect personal data.

  o Give us some feedback

• Automated technologies or interactions
  As you interact with our website, we will automatically collect technical data about your equipment, browsing actions and patterns. We collect this personal data by using cookies and other similar technologies
Use of your data
We will only use your personal data where the data protection legislation allows us to. The data we collect and store relating to you is primarily used in the following circumstances:

- Where we need to perform the contract we are about to enter into or have entered into with you;

- Where it is necessary for our legitimate interests (or those of a third party) and your interests and fundamental rights do not override those interests;

- Where we need to comply with a legal obligation;

Generally we do not rely on consent as a legal basis for processing your personal data other than in relation to sending third party direct marketing communications to you via email or text. You have the right to withdraw consent to marketing at any time by contacting us.

We have set out below, in a table format a description of all the ways we plan to use your personal data and which of the legal bases we rely on to do so. We have also identified what our legitimate interests are where appropriate.

Please note that we may process your personal data for more than one lawful ground depending on the specific purpose for which we are using your data. Please contact us if you need details about the specific legal ground we are relying on to process your personal data where more than one ground has been set out in the table below.

Marketing

We strive to provide you with choices regarding certain personal data uses, particularly around marketing and advertising.

We may use your Identity, Contact, Technical, Usage and Profile Data to form an understanding on what we think you may want or need, or what may be of interest to you. This is how we decide which products and services may be relevant for you (we call this marketing).
You will receive marketing communications from us if you have requested information from us or have given your specific and informed consent to receiving that marketing.

How long do we keep your personal data?
[We keep your personal data for no longer than reasonably necessary for a period of [insert relevant period] in order to [insert sufficient reason for retaining personal data – (“just in case” it might come in useful one day, will not be a sufficient reason)]. Examples could be: - in case of any legal claims/complaints; for safeguarding purposes etc.].
